You can choose not to provide certain information, but then you might not be able to take advantage of some of our web site's features. We use the information that you provide for such purposes as responding to your requests and orders and communicating with you.

Automatic Information: We receive and store certain types of information whenever you interact with us. For example, like many Web sites, we use "cookies," and we obtain certain types of information when your Web browser accesses ENJA RECORDS. If you do not wish this to happen, a number of companies offer utilities designed to help you visit Web sites anonymously.

E-mail Communications: We only send you e-mails whenever you buy something in our shop or if you subscribe to our newsletter mailing list. If you do not want to receive regular e-mail newsletters from us, please unsubscribe from you list.

Information from Other Sources: We will not try to receive any other information about you from third parties.

What About Cookies?

Cookies are alphanumeric identifiers that we transfer to your computer's hard drive through your Web browser to enable our shop system to store items in your Shopping Cart during your visit. These cookies are mirrored on our servers to provide continuous functionality. They will be deleted when you close your browser.

You can disable cookies in your browser, however then, our shop system might experience difficulties.

Does ENJA RECORDS Share the Information It Receives?

No. Collecting information about our customers is necessary for our shop system to make sense, however we are not in the business of selling it to others. We will not give any customer information to any third parties except if it is unavoidable to carry out your order.

Agents: We employ other companies and individuals to perform functions on our behalf. Examples include fulfilling orders, delivering packages, sending postal mail and e-mail, analyzing sales data, providing marketing assistance, processing credit card payments, fixing errors in our shop system, and generally providing customer service. They have access to personal information needed to perform their functions, but may not and will not use it for other purposes.

Business Transfers: In the unlikely event that ENJA RECORDS, or substantially all of its assets are acquired, customer information will not be one of the transferred assets except that information needed to fulfil open orders.

Protection of ENJA RECORDS and Others: We release account and other personal information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law; enforce or apply our Conditions of Use and other agreements; or protect the rights, property, or safety of ENJA RECORDS, our users, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction. Obviously, however, this does not include selling, renting, sharing, or otherwise disclosing personally identifiable information from customers for commercial purposes in violation of the commitments set forth in this Privacy Notice.

With Your Consent: Other than as set out above, you will receive notice when information about you might go to third parties, and you will have to positively confirm that you agree with your data being shared.

How Secure Is Information About Me?

We work to protect the security of your credit card information during transmission by using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software, which encrypts information you input.

We do not reveal your credit card numbers when confirming an order. Of course, we transmit the entire credit card number to the appropriate credit card company and intermediary agents during order processing.

It is important for you to protect against unauthorized access to your password and to your computer. Be sure to close your browser window when finished using a shared computer.

Which Information Can I Access?

Whenever you make an order, a summary of the information you sent us (excluding your credit card number) is being sent to your e-mail account. This information will not be used for other purposes than fulfilling your order. We will silently keep your data for up to two years for our documents. However, we will not use it to contact you again, or give it to others. If you prefer to have your data deleted from our system, or if you would like to know which data we store about you, please do not hesitate to contact us by phone or e-mail and we will be happy to give you information and / or anonymise your data.

What Choices Do I Have?

As discussed above, you can always choose not to provide information, even though it might be needed to make a purchase.
